To meet the needs of RIs at different phases of development, participants will be able to choose specific modules to benefit from a customised programme.

Face-to-face modules will be held in Milan at the University of Milano-Bicocca. Imperial College London, UK and the University of Minho, Portugal will contribute to the programme.

Number of places available: 25
Registration for the first iteration of the Masters is free as it is financed by Ritrain.
Registration includes programme delivery, materials and meals during face-to-face teaching, but excludes accommodation and travel to the venue.

Unlike most executive masters in general management, our programme has been designed specifically for RIs. Participants will include:
- Recently appointed or upcoming senior managers
- Heads of National Nodes
- Heads of Finance and Administration, HR and Communication
- Chief Operating Officers or their equivalent
