

The 'Munich Center for the Economics of Aging' (MEA) at the Max Planck Institute for Social Law and Social Policy offers a full time position as in the SHARE project at the earliest possible date. The position is limited to a two-year contract, with the possibility of extension conditional on funding. SHARE, the 'Survey of Health, Ageing and Retirement in Europe' is a large international social science panel study. The data combines extensive cross-national information on socio-economic status, health, and family relations of Europe's elder population.

Data Base Manager

Your tasks will include:

- Processing and documentation of SHARE data
- Data checks in close cooperation with the SHARE country teams
- Mentoring, supporting and training of SHARE country teams
- Writing of data correction files in Stata

The successful applicant will have the following education, skills and competencies:

- University degree in social sciences, sociology, psychology, statistics, political science, economics, epidemiology, public health, demography, data science or a related field
- Experience with longitudinal survey data
- Advanced knowledge of statistical software, preferably Stata (or SAS, R, SPSS)
- Good knowledge of Microsoft Office, especially Excel and Word
- Strong proficiency in English required, good knowledge of German desirable, knowledge of other languages welcome
- Team player mentality
- Self-organized & highly proactive working style
- Interest in own research on substantive or methodological topics

Further scientific qualification through a dissertation will be possible. Compensation will be in accordance with TVöD. A generous benefits package complements this attractive job in an international, team-oriented research endeavour. SHARE is an equal opportunities employer and encourages applications from women and men, including disabled people, from all cultural backgrounds and ethnic origins.

Please submit a complete application quoting reference number 06-19 (CV, cover letter, copies of degrees and certificates; one pdf document) by 31.03.2019 to stuck@mea.mpisoc.mpg.de and hr@mpisoc.mpg.de.

Max-Planck-Institut für Sozialrecht und Sozialpolitik
Amalienstr. 33
80799 München
Deutschland

For further information, please visit our website at <http://www.share-project.org> or contact Stephanie Stuck (stuck@mea.mpisoc.mpg.de).